Extension Activity Report

1) Name of Activity: Laughter club

2) Collaborating Agency: NSS

3) Number of Beneficiaries/Participants: 35

4) Number of faculty: 01

5) Program Outcome:

- Laughter helps reduce stress by triggering the release of endorphins, the body's natural feel-good chemicals. Students often face academic and personal stressors, and regular laughter can be a healthy way to cope with these pressures.

1) Name of Activity: Booster dose camp

2) Collaborating Agency: NSS

3) Number of Beneficiaries/Participants: 58

4) Number of faculty: 04

5) Program Outcome:

- Enhanced Immunity: Booster doses are typically given to enhance the immune response against a specific pathogen. In the case of COVID-19, booster doses can help boost the waning immunity from the initial vaccine series, providing stronger protection against infection and severe illness.
