STUDY TOUR REPORT

(A.Y. 2023-24)

Class: B.Sc. III

Title : Experiential Learning through Industrial Visit

Introduction:

Experiential Learning has gained overwhelming importance in school or college life of students to enrich the knowledge. Experiential Learning is a process of learning through experience or learning by doing. It is an alternative to traditional classroom instruction that involves both students and instructor.

Experiential Learning can be achieved through variety of activities like study tours, industrial visits, field visits, internships, research projects, laboratory experiments. Community services, NSS camps, etc.

It is important because students get opportunity to better understand course material, insight into their own skills, interests, passions, collaboration with diverse organizations and people, boost of self-confidence and leadership skills.

In view of importance of experiential learning, Dept. of Chemistry of this college organized the Study Tour of B.Sc. III students on 18.01.2024.

Objective:

Objective of the Study Tour is to give students opportunity for experiential learning by observing and understanding the processes involved in manufacture of milk products in Milk Industry and preparation of Mineral Water in Industry.
